WINNIPEG, Sept. 2.

A new fishery commission has been appointed. The home government will be represented by Joseph Chamberlain, and Canada by one of the Dominion ministers.

Gladstone's motion in the Imperial House of Commons, in opposition to the proclamation of the Irish National League, was defeated by a majority of 78.

The Hudson's Bay Factors are in conference at Winnipeg. The questions of extending operations to the extreme north and adopting the Company's business to the modern condition of affairs are the principal topics under discussion.

The railway agitation has calmed down. All grading on the Red River Valley road has been completed, and no further trouble anticipated until track-laying commences next week.

Sir A. Blackwood, Secretary of the Imperial Post Office Department, has gone to the Pacific coast to enquire into the question of Imperial subsidy for the C. P. R.

Many prominent Englishmen are at present visiting Manitoba.

CLARK'S CHRONICLE, Sept. 2.—Const. Montgomery, N.W.M.P., left here this morning for Prince Albert, having in charge one of White Cap's Sioux Indians under sentence of one month's hard labor for assault, with intent to murder the farm instructor on the Indian reservation above mentioned.

Weather fine. Harvesting proceedings going on, and everything will be done shortly, with prospects of a big yield.

LOCAL NEWS.

We are now enjoying some of the warmest days of the season.

Mr. Stephen Brewster, Advocate, has taken into partnership Mr. Jas. McKay.

Mr. H. Woodman was one of the passengers from Battleford on the steamer Northwest.

Mr. E. J. Cann, of the Post Office Book Store, returned from the east on Monday by mail stage, where he had been purchasing his fall and winter goods and visiting old friends. In all his travels he has no crops to equal those in this district. So says every one.

Mr. Andrew Goodfellow, contractor for our new school house, is pushing the work. The building was roofed in about three days. Messrs. Brown and Peard have completed the brick work and have done neat and creditable work. The building when completed will be an ornament to our town.

The steamer Northwest returned from Battleford on Thursday. Among the passengers were Ven. Archbishop John A. McKay, of Battleford, and family. In future he will be a resident among us, having been appointed principal of Emmanuel College. We cordially welcome him back in our midst.

After the P. A. C. Band was through serenading last Friday, Mr. R. B. Way, who is an old member of the band and has always taken great interest in its welfare, handed the band master a generous donation, which they wish to acknowledge with thanks. We fancy a few more such donations as this would be very acceptable, as the funds are rather low at present.
